

Dear VW Customer,

This is to inform you that the Volkswagen vehicle you currently own or previously owned is currently under a VITAL SAFETY RECALL related to defective airbags, which may pose a serious risk of fatal injury in the event of an accident.

If you prefer not to share the current owner's contact details, we kindly request that you forward this message to the new owner without delay. It is essential that the affected components are to be replaced ASAP.

The recall work is completely free of charge, including a free vehicle collection and drop-off at their convenience. For inquiry or booking, Kindly contact Volkswagen toll-free number: 80001032.

Thanking you for your cooperation.
